"I give to support Cancer Research ... too late for my Daddy, but maybe just in time for someone else’s family.”

Debbie Fowler
University Hospital / UT School of Medicine

"Helping others who need assistance is always humane and right.”

Rodolfo Sanchez
Healthy Texas Women's Program – HHSC

"I learned from a young age to help others. I am thankful every day, for everything I have — and it gives me great joy to know that my contribution provides some assistance to families who are working hard and still find themselves struggling.”

Rebecca Medina, MSN, RN
The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio, Department of Cardiothoracic Surgery

"Sharing is Caring.”

Sandy Guzman
Office of Injured Employee Counsel

"I give to help address the needs of those in my community who have no other recourse — and I see the positive impact the agencies have on individuals and families.”

Mary Trevino
Texas A&M International University

"I GIVE BECAUSE MY HEART FEELS HAPPY.”

Miosotis Sabido
Texas Department of Criminal Justice

WHY DO YOU GIVE? #secctx
“I give because we are called to care for one another.”
Juan J. Castillo Texas A&M International University

“I love the SECC ... volunteering to serve is pure joy. I love the agencies we represent and give personally to many of them.”
Carolyn M. Schmies Laredo College

“I give of my time and money to the SECC for many reasons, but mostly because I lost my grandmother, mother, father, and a husband to cancer. I myself am a 2½-year survivor of kidney cancer. I am asking everyone to acknowledge their passion and give to one of the many wonderful SECC charities!”
Tanya Rosas Texas Juvenile Justice Department

“I WANT TO HELP OTHERS LIKE ME WITH ASPERGER’S. Also, I believe that bats are an integral part of the eco-system and not to be feared.”
Laura Ashley Neil Texas Department of Criminal Justice

“I give to set a good example for my son.”
